COMMENCING AT 1.30 P. M.

PREFACE

The executors of the late Senator George W. Lewis have placed in my hands his entire collection of coins, paper money and numismatic books, to be sold at public auction. The collection contains one of the greatest rarities in the State coins, namely, the NEW JERSEY CENT, 1786, WITH DATE UNDER THE BEAM, and a fine line of mint marks in the United States silver coins.

Collectors desiring further information as to the probable selling price of any lot will please address the undersigned, who will gladly give any assistance he can.

I have exercised my usual care in describing the coins, and collectors can rely on them meeting the catalogue statements; a fact that I am thankful to be able to say is appreciated, judging from the voluntary letters to that effect that I am receiving.

As it is very expensive printing and distributing these catalogues, may I request persons whose names have been placed on my mailing list, but who are no longer interested in coins, to so notify, and also of change of address, as this class of mail matter is not forwarded by the post-office.

Sincerely,

HENRY CHAPMAN,
Numismatist,

TERMS OF SALE

This sale is made for cash. Bills payable and goods ready for delivery immediately after conclusion of the sale. The highest bidder to be the buyer. Should a dispute arise and the disputant has a voucher that he was bidding, and is willing to advance on the price at which the lot was stricken off, the said lot will be put up again and resold to the highest bidder. This does not apply to where a bidder has not made any offer prior to the said item being knocked off—then the auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims, and his decision shall be final.

The auctioneers reserve the right to refuse the bid of an individual if he declines to make a cash deposit or pay sum bid on their request to do so.

No lot is separated. All are sold so much each piece and subject to the catalogue description and number. Should any lot be misplaced, the buyer does not acquire any right in it if it is stricken off without the mistake being discovered, and such a lot must be returned to the auctioneers. If any lot cannot be delivered, the auctioneers and cataloguer are only responsible for its value as sold at this sale. The cataloguer and auctioneers reserve the right to bid on their own account and for their clients who have sent them bids to be executed.

Every item is guaranteed genuine, and this holds good indefinitely.

No coins exhibited during the progress of the sale unless by special request, when every courtesy will be extended that is possible. Collectors are requested to carefully examine the coins while on exhibition, from 9 to 12.30 o'clock day of sale at the auction rooms, marking their catalogue, thus being prepared, as the sale progresses at the rate of 200 to 250 lots per hour.

I will carefully and faithfully execute any bids entrusted to my care for a commission of 5 per cent. on the amount purchased. No charge for work done on any not bought.

The auctioneers will execute bids free of charge, but assume no responsibility, and require payment prior to delivery of the goods.

The cataloguer and auctioneer will not be responsible for any errors made by bidders.

Hand-priced catalogue after sale for fifty cents, payable in advance.

7 1786 Connecticut. Cent. Similar obv., die broken under chin. R. ET LIB INDE. Liberty seated l. 1786. Fine. Rare. C. 1-A.

8 1787 Connecticut. Cent. Crosby 36-F—a combination not given by him! Very good. Very rare.

9 1787 Massachusetts. Cent. COMMONWEALTH Indian standing with bow and arrow; aged features, long under-jaw; body stooped slightly. R. MASSACHUSETTS Eagle with long, thin neck and very large, expanded wings; four leaves on olive branch; 7 arrows above claw, 12 below it. Very good. Small planchet, so that upper half of the letters COM and SSACHUSE are off. Weight 123½ grains; size 16½. Crosby 1-B, rarity 6—he knew of only one in the Brevoort collection, and this is believed to be that coin. Mr. Hillyer Ryder has one, but not as fine as this. This example once belonged to Mr. W. E. Hidden. Excessively rare.

10 1787 Massachusetts. Cent. Type as last. Muscular Indian. R. Eagle with thick neck and small wings. Obverse die broken in three places. Very fine. Light olive. C. 9-H, rarity 6; figure 7, plate VI. Very rare and but very seldom offered.

THE CELEBRATED DATE UNDER THE BEAM NEW JERSEY CENT.

12 1786 New Jersey. Cent. NOVA CÆSAREA (New Jersey). Bust of horse facing r., rope bar beneath, below plow without coulter to right, under the beam 1786. R. * E * PLURIBUS * UNUM * (one composed of many). U. S. shield. Deep serratures around border of both obverse and reverse; that on the obverse runs off edge at top, and has wide border outside of it for the lower half. Even on reverse. Extremely fine. Smooth surface. Light olive color. Sharp, bold impression. Maris 7-G. Far superior to the other example known, which was formerly in the Parmelee sale, lot No. 371, where we bought it for $212.50 for the late J. G. Mills, he selling it to the late James Ten-Eyck, of Albany, who gave his collection to the city and thus removed for ever from the market the only other known specimen. Mr. Lewis obtained this one in a small collection he purchased from a gentleman of Burlington, N. J., and it is now for the first time offered for sale. A gem of the highest importance.

13 1786 New Jersey. Cent. Type of last, but date under the plow. No coulter. Fair. Cleaned. Eroded surface. Maris 9-G, and which he called unique, as he knew of but the one example. Thus this specimen is the only other known probably and that money will buy, for Dr. Maris sold his entire collection to T. Harrison Garrett, Esq., and they are at Princeton University.

14 1787 New Jersey. Cent. Type of above, but has coulter. New obverse die unknown to Dr. Maris. The head of the horse and plow are small; the date and letters large. Maris reverse, probably his I. Poor. REA of CÆSAREA do not show. R. E S UNUM worn off. Cross cut on rev. Excessively rare.

15 1787 New Jersey. Cent. Maris 6-C, the reverse used with the Pattern Washington and other cents. Good. Rare.

16 1786 New Jersey. Cent. No coulter. Maris 12-G. Poor. Scarce.
